A portion of the proceeds from your purchase will be donated to the Sickle Cell Foundations. This is the last Sunday that they will be available at MBCC for purchase. Therefore, Please go by the Bookstore to purchase your lithograph today.

Church-Wide Bible Study: Each Sunday and Wednesday through January 28th, Pastor Thomas and Pastor Pitts will lead the church through the book, "Pursuing Spiritual Transformation: The Life-Giving Power of Community" on Sunday at 8:30am and Wednesday at 7:00pm.

Kroger/Schnucks: Begin Loading Again!: The holidays may be over but it is still critical that you load your Kroger/Schnucks' card in order to benefit our children's/youth renovation project. If you have not loaded your card lately, please do so as soon as possible. Don't have a card? Please come by the Security Desk on Sunday to pick-up a card or contact Betty Boone (901.272.5650) during the week at The Blvd to get a card. Your support is greatly appreciated.

"Keeping It Real" Sexuality Bible Study for Teens: The Refuge High School Ministry is initiating a faith-based dialogue on teenage sexuality using the Keeping It Real" Sexuality Course. Classes will convene each Sunday at 8:30 am in the FLC TV lounge. This is the official Bible Study segment for High School students of The BLVD. All high school students are welcomed and expected to attend this dynamic curriculum and study. All interested parents are invited to attend an orientation on Wednesday, January 28, 2009, from 6:00 pm -6:50 pm in the Conference Room - 03A. For additional information, contact Pastor Neko Sharkey at 901-272-5638 or sharkey.neko@theblvd.org.

Jendayi Eshe (Girls Rites of Passage): Mrs. Camille Curry would like to meet with all Jendayi Eshe' participants & their parents immediately following service today in Room 04N.
